THE REETH & DISTRICT GAZETTE

ABOUT THE "GAZETTE"

Established in 1995 the "Gazette" is the local community news magazine for Swaledale & Arkengarthdale, the two most northerly dales in the Yorkshire Dales National Park. Published usually as a monthly magazine it normally carries articles and reports of general and local interest together with stories of the history of the dales and it's people. It is the fees from local advertisers carried in the magazine, that allow the "Gazette" to be issued as a free copy.

The "Gazette" is written, published and printed by a team of unpaid volunteers and normally some 2000,(40 page) copies are distributed throughout the two dales. We also have a subscription service for folk who love the dales and wish to be kept up to date with the news.

The "Friends of Reeth & District Gazette" now number over 125, and for a subscription of £10 per year are sent each monthly issue by post.

It is the joint income from the advertisers and the "Friends" which enable the "Gazette" to bring local news to local people.

WHY THIS SPECIAL ISSUE ?

When the first cases of foot & mouth disease were reported and confirmed, there was a general request to the population "Not to visit the countryside". The people must be thanked because they took great notice and stopped away. However though this was right at the time, it was not immediately realised just how much damage would be caused to the rural infrastructure by our local shops, pubs, craft shops and visitor attractions losing the much needed income from visitors. This has meant short time working for employees and drastic closure as a temporary measure for others. Over all the economy in the dales has been hit very hard.

Swaledale & Arkengarthdale have remained free from the dreaded disease - but we have caught the backlash of the restrictions.

This Special Issue is to try and persuade you, dear reader, to come and visit the two most beautiful dales - all our advertisers will bid you welcome. There are many and varied attractions spread throughout our area. PLEASE HELP

STAYING IN OR TOURING THE AREA

The gateway to the area is via Scotch Corner on the A1 taking the road to Richmond, the old county town with its Castle, Georgian Theatre and riverside walks. Walk the narrow lanes, look at the old Friary, check the steep square. Stroll to Easby Abbey along the river Swale, then from Richmond take the road to Reeth and discover the beautiful Two Dales for yourself, with the stone walled natural hay meadows, and carpets of wild flowers from mid-June to the end of July, soft rolling hills with their banks of purple heather in August-September. The area boasts many historic Churches, all well worth a visit. The Museum at Reeth displays artefacts depicting the history of Lead-mining in the Two Dales and throughout the area there are old sites of mining interest. There are many other local places of interest to see including the Buttertubs Pass, the spectacular Waterfalls near Keld, the famous Tan Hill Inn (the highest Licensed premises in England 1732ft asl.) Call in to the craft shops/workshops and see the pots, models and ceramics being made. Perhaps treat yourself to a holiday memento or plan ahead for some-one's birthday or Christmas present.

We have the Swaledale Festival May 25th-June 9th featuring music and artists providing a wide choice from the classics to traditional folk, from Shakespeare to modern satire. Both Reeth and Muker village Brass Bands take part, putting on concerts in the churches and village halls. Illustrated Talks and Lectures are given on diverse subjects of local and general interest. From Spring to September each year there are normally Agricultural and Sheep Shows at Tan Hill, Reeth and Muker. Public Transport serves the dale and there are services to Richmond, Leyburn and Hawes Markets.

Why not visit the different film and TV locations and see for yourself where the BBC's Herriot Vet series "All Creature Great and Small" was filmed. The Fast Show and Countryfile have also filmed in the dales.

Further afield but within easy driving distance are the Settle to Carlisle Railway, Lightwater Valley Amusement Park, Beamish Open Air Museum, historic York City or the Lake District, ideal as day trips.

From Hotels to small Inns, from Guest Houses to self-catering cottages, travel by car or by public transport we are sure you will thoroughly enjoy a visit or holiday spent in the beautiful northern dales. PMB
