EDITORIAL

Hello again ! I spent some time last week and the week before reading the 'A' Level and GCSE results. I always like to see if there is anyone I know who has been successful. We know some of our young people in the Dale have done well, in these and other exams (some are even mentioned in this month's Gazette). There are more that we do not know about, sorry your name wasn't mentioned, but never the less we wish you well. If you would like a mention—and we would like to know who you are, do let us know and we will publish next month. Many of our youngsters have tried very hard to achieve good results, and what we sometimes tend to forget is that they also lead a full and active life apart from school, and their school day is much longer than the norm. Some of them start off for school/college at 7:30 am, and do not get home until 6:00 pm in the evening, and then have their homework etc. to do. It is no mean achievement when young people are successful, as any parent will testify, and so we all should enjoy their success and be proud of them, they are a vital part of our community. I feel it is therefore very sad when as soon as the results are published, with the headline "Best ever results" the next days headlines are usually "Exam standards queried as pass mark is lowered" What a thing to say!

Is it not possible in this day and age to give young people and their teachers credit for achievement ? Must we always be so sceptical—"Oh of course the results are higher, they have lowered the pass rate" is a statement I find hard to come to terms with. I appreciate, as many other parents do, how much work our youngsters put into their studies, and I know that not everyone achieved what they had hoped. All I hope is that such statements do not demoralise them. I think the statements say much more about the cynicism of our society than they do about exam results. Well done everyone, and we do wish you all the success in the future, and even better results !! For those of you embarking on a new stage in life, perhaps leaving home for the first time you might like to reflect on these words which I came across recently. They were quoted to me by my grandmother when I left home to go to college :- "Never lose an opportunity, the chance may never come again. Never lose hope no matter how desperate the situation, there is always a possibility you have never thought of. Never lose a minute—the minute is lost forever. Never lose your temper—doing so merely advertises your weaknesses and lack of self control. And never lose a friendship as such a loss means impoverishment!" Good luck to you all, do write to us and let us know how you are getting on. Thanks for reading. GML

MUKER BAND SCORES A 'FIRST'

Just after midnight on Saturday 4th August, 29 members of Muker Silver Band, plus family and friends, left Muker by coach for their first overseas tour. Planning the trip began more than two years ago, and the arrangements were made by Club Europe - a travel company specialising in music tours by bands and choirs. The dates had to be fixed well in advance, so that members could book their annual leave and plan their other commitments accordingly: and in the event, only one of the regular members was unable to join the party.

The destination was Valkenburg, a small but lively holiday centre in the far south-east of Holland. The outward journey, via Euro-tunnel, should have taken about fourteen hours, but in the end it took nearly twenty! The gears of the coach failed just outside Calais, and we were stranded for five hours on a quiet suburban roundabout before a relief coach could be organised. It was a frustrating wait, but the weather was fine and everyone showed remarkable patience and good humour. Fortunately this was the only mishap on the entire tour, and it was quickly put behind us, once we had reached Valkenburg, enjoyed a late meal, and settled into our hotels.

We were committed to play three concerts in as many days, and it was a still-tired but excited party which made an early start the following morning for the three-hour drive to Luxembourg City. We gave our concert at midday on the magnificent bandstand in the city's central square. There was just time for lunch and some hasty sight-seeing before the coach took us back to our base.

On the second day, we crossed the nearby German border to visit Aachen. A shorter journey meant more time to explore this historic city, with its fascinating cathedral, before playing in one of the local parks in the afternoon. On the third and final day, we played on the bandstand in Valkenburg itself. Although the weather could have been kinder, all our performances were well supported and enthusiastically received, with many appreciative comments afterwards from members of the different audiences. We took the opportunity to hand out leaflets explaining who we were and where we came from, and these have provoked some very flattering e-mails

"It was a marvellous afternoon and the audience was filled with enthusiasm for your FIRST CLASS MUSICIANS"....

Letter from resident of AACHEN

"As a musician and regular in a Police Band, I can't believe that your top class band is composed of spare time players only".... Letter from resident of AACHEN

"In my opinion the level of your brass band has an exceptional professional efficiency"..... "As a visiting Lancastrian in Luxembourg, I asked were they playing a Lancashire sound or a Yorkshire sound, 'YORKSHIRE' was the resounding response and they really were excellent, congratulations"....

"Please come and visit and play for us again, even though your band lacks woodwinds and saxophones."....

E-mails from several listeners.

The homeward journey - we crossed the Channel by ferry this time - was trouble-free, and it was an exhausted but very contented group who finally arrived back in Muker just before midnight on Thursday 9th August after five hectic days away. As well as the excitement and enjoyment of visiting new places and playing in new surroundings, the tour strengthened the band's camaraderie as old and young members relaxed together at our hotel after each day's playing. The pedestrianised centre of Valkenburg seemed to consist entirely of hotels, bars, restaurants, and other places of entertainment - Blackpool without the beach, in fact! Those who enjoyed the night life could join in the good-humoured party atmosphere until the small hours; those who wanted an early night found a pair of ear-plugs useful. We were a very mixed group, ranging in age from Jasmine Guy, our bandmaster's three-year old granddaughter, to eighty-year old Dennis Waller, our veteran baritone player, who was making his very first visit to foreign parts. But we all agreed that this had been a unique experience and a thoroughly enjoyable trip. We can't wait to go on tour again. We are linked with the City of Burnie Band, in Tasmania. Now there's a thought

ST. MARY'S CHURCH MUKER

The Church had a very successful Bank Holiday weekend which was enjoyable both socially and financially. A crowded Hall was royally entertained by Muker Silver Band at the Wine & Supper party on Friday night. Good food, good company and good entertainment - even if the shock of seeing Norman fall off the stage nearly spoilt the night. Fortunately he was okay. Being a good bandsman he hadn't taken a drink prior to playing. £640 was raised towards the church finances and thanks go to the band and all those who generously donated prizes and food.

On Monday a Table Top Sale, which was a new venture for the Church, was held in the Public Hall. Again this was enjoyable as well as rewarding. Thanks to the generosity of all contributors £519 was raised for essential repairs to our Elizabethan church.

Two Poems written by Linda Edwards, of West Hallam, Derbyshire

Swaledale September Storm

Just hours ago a gentle trickle
 The beck now flows like boiling ale,
 Rushing downwards, ever faster
 On to meet the widening Swale.

Crashing boulders on the bedrock
 Change its course from day to day,
 Mother river flowing faster,
 Wide as any motorway.

Vegetation, lush and verdant
 Torn out by the water's might,
 Tree trunks like gigantic Poohtix
 Rolling onwards out of sight.

Finally the storm is over
 Blue skies again above the fell,
 Beck and river now abated
 Just debris left the tale to tell.

(September 1999 – after a heavy overnight downpour when Gunnerside
 Beck seemed to boil up and take on a life of its own!)

Times Past in Gunnerside

They worked the lead so long ago
 On the fells above the dale,
 Deep silence heavy on their ears
 Above the rushing Swale.

They spent their lives beneath the green,
 Four hundred feet or more,
 How did they feel as they all filed in
 And the last man closed the door?

Those wide and silent hushes, now
 Deserted on the moor,
 The damaged landscape testament
 To the mining of the ore.

How hard their lives we'll never know
 We cushioned modern men,
 Their desperate isolation
 Is way beyond our ken.

The rich veins came, the rich veins went
 Since Roman times they say,
 Tall chimneys, now just piles of stones

Reeth & District Angling Club - August - Club News

Foot & Mouth Disease - Thankfully there has been a marked decline in the number of cases confirmed in NY over the last month (17 in total), the rate being half that for the any of the other 4 preceding months. The extra bio-security measures inaugurated in the county certainly have had a dramatic effect and it is to be hoped that their similar introduction in east Cumbria will prove equally effective. However the very slow and seemingly relentless westward movement of the disease centred on Kirkby Stephen is worrying and remains a potential threat to both Swaledale and Arkengarthdale. It is vitally important that members adhere to the Code for Anglers advised by DEFRA and published in the last issue of the Reeth Gazette.

Better late than Never - Conditions could not have been better for the first cast of the season on the 23rd July even if the amount of accessible water available was extremely limited, the trout too where very active. Luckily conditions had not deteriorated a week later when all the club water came into play. Certainly I have not had such a successful start to a season, not only were the fish plentiful, but they were also hard fighting and predominantly over a 1lb with a few over 1½ lb. Choice of fly was critical but once this ever-frustrating selection process was successfully negotiated, takes came thick and fast. The fauna too was bountiful; squadrons of gold-ringed dragonflies accompanied me and there were plentiful grey wagtails, spotted flycatchers, wood warblers and common sandpiper to enhance the experience. A later visit to the Gunnerside Estate water was rewarded with a very good sighting of a kingfisher.

Fame - Its exactly seven years since the last article appeared in the hallowed pages of Trout and Salmon about our beautiful river. I have it on good authority that the September 2001 issue is to carry another!

What Flies - "Which flies should I use"? It's an often-asked question and of course it can be a very personal choice. If it helps, I never fail to carry the following because they cover an infinite range of possible circumstances and presentations:-

Balloon Caddis	Rusty Spinner	Sparkle Dun	Sparkle Caddis
Smut	DW Dun	Hare's Ear Nymph	Hackle Adams
Black Gnat	Hawthorn	Deer Hair	Beetle Mayfly
Griffith's Gnat	Adams Trude	Klinkhammer Special	Sedge Pupa
Sinking Beetle	Pheasant Tail Nymph	Wickham's Variant	Green Caterpillar
Half Stone	Pheasant Tail	Mallard & Claret	Midge Pupa
Gold Head Hares	Ear Nymph.	Silver Invicta	Shrimp
Snipe & Purple	Partridge & Orange(or Red)	Reed Smut	March Brown

2 Dales Children's Football Club

July 29th saw our first matches since February owing to Foot and Mouth. We travelled to Askrigg to play 3 friendly matches and were very pleased to welcome some new faces among our players. (Ages, incidentally are at the beginning of the season). The under 10's played a particularly good game and a 1-1 draw was a fair result. Scorer was Ben Hall making an excellent debut and man of the match was Steven Bainbridge. The under 14's played next and whereas luck, (if not age), was an our side, our team thoroughly deserved their 2-0 win. Scorers were Stephen Allison and Adam Calvert (only 10). Man of the match was Stephen Allison who played a superb game. The under 12's match replaced a league fixture abandoned through F & M and this was hard fought but ended in a 3-1 win. Scorers were Adam Calvert, Simon Calvert and Ben Wearmouth (making his debut). Man of the match was Simon Calvert reflecting also his contribution to the U14 game and Jonathan Hall also had a good game in goal. We had 5 Calverts playing in all on the day. The opportunity was taken to present awards for the season.

The under 9 silver medal was awarded to Jack Lord while the under 11 gold medal went to Adam Calvert. The player of the year trophy was awarded to Chris Harker who is undoubtedly the best goalie in the League and who saved our bacon on several occasions. Well done everyone.

An Organ that won't Burst your Blood vessels - John Horton of Harlow

The first thing to do, when my wife has booked a self-catering cottage for a weeks holiday, is: ring the Church of England information office to find the name and telephone number of the local vicar.

And when I asked the Rev Tim Tunley if he wanted an organist at any of his churches that coming Sunday, he said, like a shot, "Yes, LOW ROW, at 11am I'll send you the hymn numbers."

Now Low Row uses one of the earlier editions of Hymns Ancient and Modern, and many of the hymns are in uncomfortable high keys - Jerusalem the Golden and Ten Thousand times Ten Thousand. One goes right up to the top f and another all the way up to f sharp.

So I found the tunes in lower keys in other hymn books and copied them, and set off for Yorkshire, content that nobody in the congregation would now burst a blood vessel.

It doesn't look impressive, that 110 year old : one manual, no pedals, and a row of stops over the keyboard like a harmonium. I looked for the discreet ivory tablet which would tell me the name of the organ builder, and it rang a bell. 'The Positive Organ Company of London. I'd seen two other Positive organs: one in the Anglican Cathedral in Kampala, Uganda - a traditional two-manual still with the original pumping handle, as power cuts are not unknown in that part of Africa. - and one in a tiny Essex village called Moreton, not far from where I live. I remembered that this had a curious device and I wondered... Yes! Here, on the Low Row organ, at each end of the keyboard, was a little handle: you just lift the keyboard up, shift it one click to the left, and it transposes anything you play down a semitone (or to the right, to go up, but that's making extra work for everyone).

So I needn't have bothered with those photocopies. A pity about there being no pedals, I thought, because they provide the deep, ponderous tones that form the foundation of any hymn tune. Still, two of the stops were bourdon and open wood - typical names for pedal stops, so I tried them. And never mind how many notes you played in a chord, those stops spoke only the lowest note.

A shame that I was in full view of the congregation: they might have figured I had lovely smooth pedalling....

"We cover the Dales"

You stick your right knee in between two wooden paddles which project under the keyboard : shove to the left and out comes a useful handful of stops; to the right - gently now - and the swell box opens. That's a nearly soundproof box in which nearly all the pipes are packed, and it has Venetian blind-type shutters which open when they are nudged by your knee. Push the paddles all the way and it clicks open, and I spent most of the sermon figuring out how to close it again.

Any organist likes to let fly in the last hymn, and my right hand went up higher and higher on the keyboard, but swiftly came down again, because the highest notes, the tiniest pipes, were woefully out of tune. Not quite the sort of out-of-tuneness you get on a trumpet or an oboe stop, but there were none of that type here, but enough, as they say, to turn milk sour at 25 yards. Well, that's one more expense for the church council. But I'm sure they don't need me to tell them that here's an instrument worth looking after.

John Horton is Chairman of Harlow Organ Club

Interesting insight John into an obviously intricate instrument and also what an organist thinks about during long sermons.

It's a Doc's Life

I write these articles on my computer. In crayon. I used to write them on my desk but it easier to get the computer in the car and up to the editor. One thing I do have on my computer is a screen saver. It saves the screen from....err, something. Anyway, its a SETI@home screen saver. It processes data that I download from SETI and sends it back. For those of you who do not know, SETI stands for the Search for Extra-Terrestrial Intelligence. The SETI radio telescope at Arecibo in Puerto Rico searches the sky for signals of ET intelligence but collects far more data than their computers can process. Someone had the bright idea of getting people like me who are interested in that sort of thing to process it at home on their computer, when it is not in use. SETI started in 1959, and so far no signal has been found that could indicate intelligent life.

However, the concept of searching for extra-terrestrial life is interesting. There are a hundred billion stars in our galaxy and billions of other galaxies in the observable universe. We now know that many stars have planets in orbit around them and if only a small percentage of those harbour life, then the Universe could be teeming with life. So why haven't we heard from them? Commercial radio broadcasting started in 1920. Those first radio transmissions left the Earth travelling at the speed of light out into the Universe and are 80 light years away by now. As you know a light year is a measure of distance; the distance travelled by light in a year. Since light travels at 186,000 miles per second (which is really slow, see below) then a light year is a bloody long way. Those same radio broadcasts will take 25-30,000 years to reach the centre of our galaxy. If someone wants to reply from there it will take another 25-30 thousand years to receive the message. Our local group of galaxies contains about 30 galaxies spread over a distance of 6 million light years. Any message sent by us across the local group would have to wait 12 million years for a reply. The "really slow" speed of light severely hampers interstellar or intergalactic conversations.

Mind you, if ET has received any of our television broadcasts then he probably wouldn't want to contact us at all. If he thinks that Eastenders is a true representation of life on Earth, or that party political broadcasts are our idea of entertainment, then he probably will want to keep quiet.

Anyway, I am bored with SETI now and I am starting a new project next week. It is a screen saver called SILIG, which stands for the Search for Intelligent Life In the Government. Don't hold your breath, it could be as unproductive as SETI.

The Friends of Reeth School - News

The cake stall held in June raised £97.25 and the Sports Day raffle raised £86. Thank you very much to anyone who supported these events.

Dates for your diary - There will be another cake stall and raffle at Reeth Market on Friday 14th September. Please try to come along to buy something delicious. The coffee morning which was earlier postponed has now been rescheduled. It will take place at Hilltop (the house next to the school) by kind permission of Mr & Mrs Calow on Friday 28th September between 10am and 2 pm. The proceeds will be split between Reeth School and The Save the Children Fund. Everyone is welcome to attend. We are hoping to hold a 70's and 80's disco on Saturday 13th October - more details to follow in next month's Gazette. Tickets will be available from school or from committee members.

What do we spend the money on? - The Friends have been able to subsidise the children's swimming lessons. We also made a contribution to the Summer Term trip to Newby Hall. We have also bought some Bellplates to complement the music equipment already available to the children. It was also possible to pay for the attendance at school of a specialist teacher who did a whole workshop day, 'Shakespeare in School' with the children. We are very fortunate to have such strong local support, enabling us to provide enhancements to the excellent teaching the children receive at our school.

Thanks to Ruth Guy - At our recent AGM Ruth stood down as Chair of the Friends. We very much hope that she will continue to be involved with the work of the Friends - even though she will no longer have any children at the school. Meanwhile, Richmond School has found out how hard-working she is and has put her to work on the PTA there! Many thanks, Ruth.

INFORMATION

North Yorkshire County Council

Mobile Skip Service - The next visit of the Mobile Skip Service to Reeth Green takes place on Saturday 22nd September, starting at 10.00 am and closing at 2.00 pm, or earlier if the vehicles become filled to capacity. The usual rules apply, no shop or trade waste, and the skip service is only available on the date/times indicated so please strictly no leaving rubbish on Reeth Green at any other time. You are invited to take along any household waste, bulk items, old fridges, old furniture, garden waste etc. and remember if you have a particularly large load to get there early to ensure there is room in the cart. To make the Skip service accessible to everybody in the Two Dales the next Mobile Skip service (in November or early December) is to be held in Muker Car Park, by kind permission of Richmondshire District Council, but the next after that will again be held in Reeth. If other communities in the Two Dales wish to put forward a suggested location in their village for the Mobile Skip Service to operate from, C C John Blackie will try to see if it can be arranged.

New Swaledale Bus Service - C C Blackie has been pushing very hard since the loss of Discretionary Awards for student lodging grants - this loss as a result of Central Government policy to shift funds from rural to urban communities (so what is new!!), the County Council had no say in the matter - for better transport links so that our Upper Dales youngsters who want to attend FE Colleges on a daily basis by public transport can at least have the opportunity to do so. He is delighted to announce then a new bus service on a Monday - Friday starting on September 3rd leaving Gunnerside at 7.30am via Low Row, Reeth, Grinton, Richmond to Darlington, arriving there at 8.47am. The return leaves Darlington at 5.15pm and gets back to Gunnerside at 6.35pm. If demand warrants he may be able to get this service extended further up the Dale beyond Gunnerside. The service is guaranteed to run for 2 years, so please any student in two minds about following a course because of the lack of transport has no excuse now for not enrolling straight away!! As well as students, the bus service is available for people using it to get to and from work, and for residents for social journeys.

Upper Dales Swimming Pool - CC Blackie writes - just a quick note to say we are submitting a Sports Lottery Bid for the Upper Dales Swimming Pool (to be built at Hawes) in October. The Pool would serve residents in Swaledale and Arkengarthdale, particularly those for whom it would be quicker to drive to Hawes than Richmond. Any letter of support for the Pool would be welcome, either from individual residents or community groups or businesses (it would be another attraction in for visitors - especially in wet weather). Just a few lines would suffice addressed to me and I will enclose it with our Bid documentation. The Lottery needs to see evidence of strong local support. Thanking you in advance.

Joint Message from :-

The Vicarage & The Manse - Reeth

Dear All,

We are writing to invite you to attend an ALPHA course which will be running from THURSDAY 13th SEPTEMBER, and held in the breakfast room of The Buck Hotel, at 7.30 pm. You may well have seen or heard about ALPHA through the media. If you have not, it is a short course aimed at allowing people to explore and ask questions about the Christian faith.

The course consists of twelve sessions, each covering a different topic. The format will be tea and coffee, a talk, followed by questions and discussion. Apart from attending the sessions there are no other commitments or catches. For anyone who is interested in being confirmed (C of E) or accepted into membership (Methodist) this would be an ideal preparation course.

If you would like further details on ALPHA please contact :-

Tim : 01748 884706 or

Andrew : 01748 884336

Best wishes to you all, Reverend's

Tim Tunley & Andrew Bell

For further details please contact Ray Wright on 884652. Enrolment is at the first session.

NATIONAL HEALTH CONSULTATIONS

Currently there are two very important NHS Consultations making the rounds of local communities. Whilst they are complex in nature they have a huge significance for residents of the Upper Dales. The first consultation proposes the upgrading of the Hambleton and Richmondshire Primary Care Group to a Trust. Eventually Primary Care Trusts will be the leading funding Agency for all healthcare provision and the Health Authorities will be abolished. They will become responsible for funding everything from GP Surgeries to medicine prescription costs to Ambulance services. The second consultation proposes a merger between the South Cleveland Hospital in Middlesbrough and the Friarage Hospital in Northallerton. This merger will see a transfer of some acute services to the South Cleveland Hospital especially those of a highly technical nature (for example heart and cancer) as the medical trend is to create strategic centres of clinical excellence in these services. The underlying motivation of the transfer is however to ensure the future viability of the Friarage Hospital which we all here in the Upper Dales have more than an interest in retaining. Giving the importance of the subject matter I raised concerns that Swaledale and Arkengarthdale had not been selected for a local presentation of the Consultations, further the map of the area did not even show Reeth!!

In response my request for a Consultation has been granted and it will take place on Monday 24th September at 6.30 pm in the Buck Hotel in Reeth.

It was the only date they could offer and unfortunately clashes with a District Council meeting that I have to chair so I cannot be there. Dr Bond will be attending, and I hope a good number of residents from the Two Dales. The points need to be made that living in a deeply rural area should not mean a second or third class health service, local access to healthcare provision is essential to vibrant rural communities, it already takes an hour or more to drive to the Friarage Hospital so that any suggestion that it be run down or lose its vitally important A + E service will be met with outright opposition from the Upper Dales. The price of our support for any changes to healthcare provision is copper bottomed guarantees on all these points.

Can I leave it to you good folk on this occasion? County Coun. J Blackie.

Mobile Skip Service - The next visit of the Mobile Skip Service to Reeth Green takes place on Saturday 22nd September, starting at 10.00 am and closing at 2.00 pm, or earlier if the vehicles become filled to capacity. The usual rules apply, no shop or trade waste, and the skip service is only available on the date/times indicated so please strictly no leaving rubbish on Reeth Green at any other time. You are invited to take along any household waste, bulk items, old fridges, old furniture, garden waste etc. and remember if you have a particularly large load to get there early to ensure there is room in the cart. To make the Skip service accessible to everybody in the Two Dales the next Mobile Skip service (in November or early December) is to be held in Muker Car Park, by kind permission of Richmondshire District Council, but the next after that will again be held in Reeth. If other communities in the Two Dales wish to put forward a suggested location in their village for the Mobile Skip Service to operate from, C C John Blackie will try to see if it can be arranged.

New Swaledale Bus Service - C C Blackie has been pushing very hard since the loss of Discretionary Awards for student lodging grants - this loss as a result of Central Government policy to shift funds from rural to urban communities (so what is new!!), the County Council had no say in the matter - for better transport links so that our Upper Dales youngsters who want to attend FE Colleges on a daily basis by public transport can at least have the opportunity to do so. He is delighted to announce then a new bus service on a Monday - Friday starting on September 3rd leaving Gunnerside at 7.30am via Low Row, Reeth, Grinton, Richmond to Darlington, arriving there at 8.47am. The return leaves Darlington at 5.15pm and gets back to Gunnerside at 6.35pm. If demand warrants he may be able to get this service extended further up the Dale beyond Gunnerside. The service is guaranteed to run for 2 years, so please any student in two minds about following a course because of the lack of transport has no excuse now for not enrolling straight away!! As well as students, the bus service is available for people using it to get to and from work, and for residents for social journeys.

Upper Dales Swimming Pool - CC Blackie writes - just a quick note to say we are submitting a Sports Lottery Bid for the Upper Dales Swimming Pool (to be built at Hawes) in October. The Pool would serve residents in Swaledale and Arkengarthdale, particularly those for whom it would be quicker to drive to Hawes than Richmond. Any letter of support for the Pool would be welcome, either from individual residents or community groups or businesses (it would be another attraction in for visitors - especially in wet weather). Just a few lines would suffice addressed to me and I will enclose it with our Bid documentation. The Lottery needs to see evidence of strong local support. Thanking you in advance. County Councillor John Blackie, Dryden House, Market Place, Hawes, North Yorkshire DL8 3RA.
