CHRISTIAN AID WEEK ACTIVITIES:

House to House - Sunday 12th to Saturday 18th May 'Bite Back at Hunger' is the theme of this year's collection. The south of Zimbabwe is arid and prone to droughts, leading to failed harvests and acute hunger for many people. Unable to access clean and reliable water sources means many struggle to harvest even their strongest crops or provide safe drinking water to their families. Working closely with the community, Christian Aid partner, Dabane Trust, has helped to build a sand dam, transforming not only their harvests but the life of the whole community. A project in Kenya is providing weather forecasts by text messages to mobile phones to help farmers make better decisions about what to grow and when to plant it. A project in Bolivia is securing rights to the land where people of the Amazon rain forest have lived for generations. So please give generously in the annual House to House Collection which will be taking place from Sunday 12th to Saturday 18th May. Please consider signing the Gift Aid declaration which is attached to the red envelope. This is at no cost to you but allows Christian Aid to receive a total of 25p in addition to every £1 you contribute. You have to pay an amount of UK Income Tax or Capital Gains Tax that at least equals the tax that Christian Aid reclaims on your donations. If this is the case, please sign the form, tear off the slip and insert it into the envelope with your donation. Please also join us for

- Drop in coffee morning at Reeth Methodist Church School Room - Friday 17th May

We look forward to seeing you and receiving your support. Donations of cakes and produce are especially welcome. Please telephone Pauline or Susan if you would like a lift to the service or if you need cakes/produce collecting: Pauline 886790 or Susan 884366.

Very many thanks in anticipation. Pauline Oldershaw Secretary - Upper Swaledale & Arkengarthdale Christian Aid Committee

ARKENGARTHDALE SCHOOL HITS THE HIGH NOTES AT THE WENSLEYDALE TOURNAMENT OF SONG

Arkengarthdale School scooped a top award and a number of prizes at the Wensleydale Tournament of Song on 20th and 21st March. Under the expert guidance of Rod Hall and Emma Wardell, fourteen children aged between 7 and 11, took part in both choral and musical ensembles. In spite of being one of the smallest schools involved in the competition, Arkengarthdale proved that it was all about quality not quantity. The instrumental group played a beautiful rendition of a piece called 'Carillon' to win the prize for best junior ensemble. The adjudicator praised the choir for their two-part harmony performance and placed them second and third in two classes. The President of the Tournament has a special accolade to present to the junior or senior competitor of his choice and the children, teachers and audience alike were delighted when Arkengarthdale School was awarded the President's Plate. Comments Anna Brown, Key Stage 2 teacher at Arkengarthdale School, "The children put their hearts and souls into their performances, playing and singing to an exceptionally high standard. They have practised tirelessly under the direction of Rod and Emma and it's fantastic to see their dedication and enthusiasm rewarded in this way. The aims of the Wensleydale Tournament of Song are to encourage the study, performance and appreciation of good music and to afford the competitors the opportunity of having their performance marked by professional adjudicators in music. This has been a terrific and valuable experience for the children and we look forward to being involved in 2014." Congratulations to the children who took part: Ellen Atkinson, Isabel Lundberg, James Wardell, Ralph Midgley (year 3), Amy Atkinson, Emma Hodgson, Florence Hall, (year 4), Harriet Rye, Holly Dixon, Sacha Cole (year 5), Adele May, Eva Midgley, Freya Pealing, Mary Atkinson (year 6). Coinciding with the Tournament was the annual cross country competition at Catterick Racecourse, involving children from the school who performed very well against tough competition. A special mention goes to the School's star performer, Ellen Atkinson, who came 7th out of over 100 runners in the year 3 girls' race

MIDDLEHAM AND DALES LOCAL HISTORY GROUP

Tuesday 21st May 2pm - Middleham Key
Centre The Christopher Pratt story
David Pratt

In this talk, David Pratt will tell the story of his forebear, Christopher Pratt, the eleven year old son of a Gunnerside lead miner, whose widowed mother took her family to Bradford in 1830. Christopher served his time as a cabinet maker and started his own business some fifteen years later. He was eventually joined by his four sons, and the business became the home and contract furnishing firm of Christopher Pratt and Sons. Surviving two World Wars and witnessing the reign of five royal monarchs, the company is still in business today. David Pratt is a member of the fourth generation of his family to run the business and since he retired he has had time to look more deeply into its history. His research resulted in the publication of an article entitled "From humble beginnings..." in The Yorkshire Dalesman of May 2010. David's presentation will be a new departure for MDLHG as he will use sound recordings in addition to visual images to illustrate the fascinating history of this important Bradford retail firm.

Annual membership of the group is £10 and visitors are welcome to attend individual meetings for a fee of £3. For further information, please contact Tony Keates 01969 640436 or email dotandtonyk@btinternet.com

THE SWALEDALE BIG DIG

Some of you may have noticed references to a local archaeology project in recent editions of the Gazette so we thought we had better explain what this is about. The Swaledale & Arkengarthdale Archaeology Group (SWAAG) is intending to investigate the development of Reeth and Grinton in medieval times and perhaps earlier. Reeth and Grinton both have long histories going back at least to Anglo-Saxon

Cont. from page 8: times and perhaps earlier. Both are mentioned in the Domesday Book of 1086AD and it has been suggested that there might have been a Roman fort in Reeth. In the 1980's Andrew Fleming & Tim Laurie excavated an Iron Age settlement East of Healaugh and recently SWAAG has uncovered a Romano-British settlement in Fremington. We aim to add to our knowledge of the development of the two villages through a project which we are calling "The Swaledale Big Dig". We hope to involve the local community, together with our members, in digging a number of test pits in gardens and public spaces around the two villages. With respect to Reeth, a primary objective is to increase our understanding of the layout of the village prior to the granting of the market charter in 1694/5. It is assumed that the development of the market town led to the layout of the buildings around a central green, as it is today. One theory is that prior to 1695 or thereabouts, Reeth was probably a typical medieval village with a row of tofts (dwellings) & crofts (gardens / small fields) roughly on the line of High Row and another line facing them, with the crofts extending back towards where the Post Office is today. We propose to undertake a geophysical survey of the Green and then dig a number of test pits on and around Reeth Green in order to test this theory. It would be really good to also put test pits in people's gardens in Reeth to get a wider understanding of how the village evolved. Our objectives with respect to Grinton are similar to those for Reeth. At one time Grinton was one of the largest ecclesiastical parishes in the country and the construction of the church in Norman times suggests that Grinton was the major settlement in the area but little is known about its development until more recent times. Whilst it does not appear to have undergone such a radical transformation as Reeth may have done, nonetheless there are some intriguing questions regarding its early development. Early maps suggest that the layout of the routes in and out of the settlement may have changed over time. John Leland, on his tour of England and Wales in Tudor times, wrote about Grinton being a little market town for corn and linen in c1540; the location of the market is not known. Ariel photographs show a number of 'lumps and bumps' in fields close to the village. Are these the remains of medieval tofts and crofts? Was Grinton much bigger in medieval times? The Swaledale Big Dig aims to answer these and many other questions about the development of the two settlements of Reeth and Grinton. We are applying for support from the Heritage Lottery Fund in order to carry out the project. If we are successful we plan to undertake documentary research over the winter and begin the test pits in the late Spring or early Summer of 2014. We hope very much to involve as many members of the local community as possible, together with the two local primary schools, the local scout group and the Help for Heroes Centre in nearby Catterick. If you would like to know more about the Swaledale Big Dig and even better, get involved, then please contact either Alan Mills, Judith Mills (01748 884938), Peter Denison-Edson (01748 886542) or email info@swaag.org

MESSAGE from the SWALEDALE
MUSEUM in Reeth

Have you seen the new look Museum? Come in and catch up with developments, and think about using our new area for groups upstairs. We can accommodate up to 50 for talks, tea and hands-on activities, perfect for schools, clubs and special events. We have a smart red uniform, long service medal and silver topped cane in our Collection, and we wanted to know more about them. So we have invited Lynda Powell, Director of Green Howards Museum to talk about: 'The Dashing Volunteer: The Story Behind Private Hammond's Yorkshire Volunteer Regiment Uniform'. This will be on Wednesday 22nd May at 7.30 pm in Fremington Sunday School, part of our monthly Friends of the Museum events programme. On Wednesday 19th June at 7.30 pm, Dr Geoffrey Hope will give us a 'A Tour Round Dr Speirs's Medical Bag'. Dr Speirs's sister gave the Museum a wide range of rather gruesome looking instruments and Dr Hope has kindly agreed to delve his hands into the Collection to reveal their uses and context. This talk will be followed up with a visit to York Medical Society. Tickets for the Second Marvellous Magic Lantern Slide Show in Reeth Memorial Hall Saturday 15th June 7.00 pm are now on sale from the Museum and Reeth Post Office. You might also want to put our local Archive Day at Low Row Institute in your diaries for Saturday 29 June 10.30 - 3.30. Speakers include Christine Hallas, Duncan Bythell, Keith Sweetmore and others. As this event is in celebration of the contribution of Elizabeth Berry to our knowledge of the history of the Dales, the Swale Singers (of which she was a founding and enthusiastic member) have been invited to give us a short lunch time concert. We have a Pilot Programme from the new Centre for Swaledale Studies. Three seminars on objects found locally that give special insight into the history of Swaledale and Arkengarthdale. These events will begin with coffee/tea in the Museum at 10.30 am followed by presentations and discussion, and finish at 12.30. The idea is to build up a series of case studies, incorporating the most recent research and ideas that reveal the history of Swaledale and Arkengarthdale from Prehistory to the Present. Tickets: £10 in advance; £12 on the door, includes admission to the Museum, coffee and tea, and a reading list. Book all three at the same time for £25. Places are limited. The programme is as follows: Saturday 18th May - Session 1: Two exceptional local prehistoric finds, their chronology and possible use. Tim Laurie will launch this series with an investigation of two prehistoric tools found locally, an axe and a hammer. Saturday 22nd June - Session 2: Romano-British pot fragments in the context of a settlement uncovered by the Swaledale and Arkengarthdale Archaeology Group at the Hagg, Fremington in 2012 and Saturday 6th July - Session 3: Medieval Glass Fragments from Marrick Priory. This seminar will focus on a small group of plain glass fragments deposited in the Swaledale Museum by the Rev. Bailey in 1978, and simply described as 'Medieval Glass from Marrick Priory'. All sessions will take place in the Swaledale Museum, Reeth: 10.30 - 12.30

We have a Programme of Visits, working in conjunction with the Reeth & District Community Bus. Places will be limited. The first is planned for Tuesday 18th June: Abbeyhorn Works, Holme, Carnforth & Wreay Church, Cumbria: The Swaledale Museum has a small group of horn objects. This visit is organised to help us understand how they were made. In 1991 Paul Cleasby took over the Abbeyhorn Works which traces its descent back to 1749, and uses traditional methods to make horn wares, like bowls and spoons. This visit will include a tour of the workshops and a short history of the firm. In the afternoon we will visit Wreay Church designed by Sarah Losh, the subject of Jenny Uglow's most recent book, The Pinecone. Learn more about this extraordinary church and its unusual and visionary architecture, and its designer. COST £20 including transport from Reeth. Don't forget that we are open everyday from 10am until 5pm except Saturdays until the end of September. Contact Helen Bainbridge on 01748 884118 or e-mail museum.swaledale@btinternet.com for more information and booking. Look at our website www.swaledalemuseum.org for more details, and follow us on Facebook!

WENSLEYDALE DECORATIVE AND FINE ARTS SOCIETY

Garden History

In From Knots to Borders - and Beyond Marilyn Elm will trace the development of planting design, from the delights of the medieval perfumed plot, to the modernist architectural planting and the aesthetics of the 'prairie style' so popular today. She will examine the changes in the use of colour, texture, form and layout, and will consider the work of designers such as J.C. Loudon, Gertrude Jekyll and Piet Oudolf (Scampston Walled Garden, and the Lurie Park, Chicago) and James Hitchmough and Nigel Dunnett (Olympic Park). Marilyn Elm is a qualified landscape architect and interior designer, involved with art and design for over thirty years. She is course leader in garden and landscape design history at Leeds Metropolitan University and a freelance lecturer for a variety of organisations, universities and specialist groups, including the RHS, WEA, U3A and NADFAS. She is passionate about promoting garden history, and has published articles, broadcast for BBC television and radio, and the Discovery Channel.

This Wensleydale Decorative and Fine Arts Society lecture is on Tuesday May 14th at 2.00pm in Middleham Key Centre. Non-members are welcome at £5 per lecture, pre-booking is essential, membership and further information is available from the Membership Secretary, tel. 01748 886545

HUDSON HOUSE UPDATE

The 2013 AGM in March of Hudson House saw the retirement of the Chairman Richard Good who had been heavily involved since its inception. He was thanked for all his hard work and enthusiasm in the setting up and subsequent running of Hudson House and was presented with a framed photograph showing Hudson House in the moonlight. His wife, Sheila, was given a splendid bouquet in recognition of all her support of Richard.

There were two other retirements from the Board also, Kathleen Raw, who has been overseeing the finances and Lorna Kitchin whose main responsibility was the organisation of Volunteers. Their input had been invaluable.

Rita Lawson was then elected to the Chair and together with a small but keen Board of fellow Directors plans to see this Community asset continue to grow and provide the base for a wide variety of interests.

At the AGM the Annual Report was presented giving interesting information about all the Users and a more optimistic review of the financial position. Copies are available at Hudson House.

If you are interested in supporting Hudson House in its work in any way please email admin@hudsonhouse.info or telephone 01748884485. Your help will be gratefully received.

AGM OF MUKER SILVER BAND.

Chairman Philip Calvert reported on a busy and enjoyable year, despite the dismal summer weather driving some outdoor concerts inside. The Band had featured on an ITV cooking programme with Ade Edmundson, and more recently on BBC2's Country Show series. Muker was described as a picture-perfect village, and will be shown world-wide when the Tour de France passes through next year. Let's hope for a sunny day! All the officers of the band were re-elected including Bandmaster Norman Guy, Secretary Maurice Guy, Treasurer Dora Watts and Conductor

REETH AND DISTRICT GAZETTE LTD

Duncan Bythell. The updated website was now in operation, thanks to Allan Guy. The coming year's engagements include visits to Lancashire, and a tour to Wales, with concerts scheduled for Llandudno and Betws-y-Coed. It was decided to include one or two new items for the popular end-of-show hymn singing at Muker in September. New hymn sheets would be produced, but most of the old favourites retained.

REETH PARISH COUNCIL MARCH 28

Skip No payment had been received yet in respect of the skip on parish land in Silver Street and it was noted that this had now damaged a large patch of cobbles which would need to be repaired. Another skip had now been placed on the north side of the green. The clerk would contact the company concerned and stress the need for prior permission. Village Clock Coun Allinson had reset the clock after it had been slowed by the bad weather. A request had been received from the clock makers that the old clock mechanism should be donated to a museum being set up in the Leeds Armouries displaying the work of the company. Coun Kendall felt that the clock was an important part of village history and should remain in the community. The Swaledale Museum would be approached to find out if it could be housed there. Big Dig The Swaledale and Arkengarthdale Archaeology Group would carry out a preliminary test pit on the bonfire site when the weather improved. Richmond Road Coun Gardner reported that the Highways Department were believed to be waiting for the start of the new financial year before beginning work on repairs to the main road. Street Light The lamp post at Fremington had been replaced but with a galvanised one. Highways would be asked to paint it to match the others. Playground A letter had been received regarding the council's decision not to install a sign to the children's playground. This was discussed but members still felt that it was unnecessary as the facilities were already well used by local children and visitors. Community Projects Consideration would be given to local community schemes which might benefit from the Richmondshire Communities Opportunity Fund. Healaugh Green The clerk had discussed the status of the green with a long term resident of Healaugh. The council would approach the Lord of the Manor to clarify ownership of the land in question and responsibility for maintaining it. Keep Fit A local fitness group had requested for permission to hold classes on the bandstand. More information would be requested prior to discussion as councillors needed to be certain about the insurance implications. Honesty Boxes One of the posts had been broken off at ground level by a reversing car. Councillors Allinson and Frankland would replace this and inspect the others when the weather allowed. Tour de France Coun Gardner reported that the Yorkshire stage of the 2014 Tour de France would be seen as an opportunity for communities along the route to promote themselves and that funding might be available to help with this. Planning Permission A number of members of the public attended the meeting to put forward concerns regarding a planning application for a bunk barn at High Fremington, along with the owner of the property who presented his own case in favour of the development.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN RICHMONDSHIRE

Several local people and organisations have been recognised as "Unsung Heroes" by Richmondshire District Council for their work in our community. The Council makes a number of awards each year to acknowledge the contribution made by "the countless dedicated residents, young and old within the District who make the area a better place in which to live and work".

Martin Bearpark received a Commendation in the category for the Volunteer of the Year Award for his long standing work to support Reeth & Gunnerside Schools.

The award for the Community Group of the Year went to the Swaledale and Arkengarthdale Luncheon Clubs Association which organises four Lunch Clubs for local residents each month in Low Row, Reeth, Muker and Langthwaite. The Lunch Clubs started in 1994. They aim to foster social cohesion and combat the feelings of isolation that many less mobile residents experience in the more thinly populated areas of the 2 Dales.

Julia & Alan Thorogood with Clive World

The regular use of the village halls is also important in helping to keep them open as community facilities, and the use of the community minibus helps raise awareness of the other opportunities available through the community Ring to Ride scheme. The Lunch Club's treasurer and chairman Alan & Julia Thorogood received the award from the Chairman of the Council Clive World. Further details of the Clubs and menus are available from Reeth Post Office or by phoning Julia & Alan on 886 524. The award for the Community Business of the Year went to the Dales Bike Centre owned and run by Stuart and Brenda Price in Fremington. The bike centre is a purpose built facility which provides everything the cyclist will need on a visit to the Yorkshire Dales. They have also actively lobbied for the Tour de France to come to the district. Stuart and Brenda were also presented with their award by Clive World. Further details on the facilities, events and courses at the Bike Centre are available at www.dalesbikecentre.co.uk or on 884 908. Anyone who volunteers their time for other people, causes or organisations in any way, shape or form and has positively contributed to the community is eligible to be nominated for Volunteer of the Year.

LEAD MINING UNDER THE SPOTLIGHT IN NATIONAL PARK ART SHOW

The impact of lead mining on the fragile landscape of the Yorkshire Dales National Park is the theme of a new art exhibition in Bainbridge next month. Called 'Making a mark - lead mining in the Yorkshire Dales', the display of work by Gargrave artist Bev Parker will be on show in the Yoredale offices of the Yorkshire Dales National Park Authority (YDNPA) from April 8. It will be her first solo exhibition and focuses on lead mining sites in Wharfedale and Swaledale. Bev, who worked for the Authority for 23 years, said: "I have always been interested in local history and archaeology, and my fascination for maps - along with a deep interest in the uplands - combine to stimulate my work. "This golden opportunity to be able to interpret a live environmental study has really fired my imagination. The National Park Authority and the Environment Agency have been examining ways to mitigate pollution from historic lead mining in the Yorkshire Dales and this work has proved to be a keystone for my colourful expressive pieces." Bev, who is a B. A. Fine Art student at Craven College, said: "'Making a mark has references in monetary, environmental and artistic outcomes. Marks in a landscape can be a wall or a road, or the effect of centuries of mining activity. "The remains of the lead mining industry in the Dales uplands have a fascination at many levels. The work for this exhibition is inspired by bleak uplands, changing vegetation and artificial shapes and lines in the landscape." Richard

Burnett, the YDNPA's Director of Corporate Services, said: "The exhibition focuses on an unusual subject in a very unique way and we hope it will provide some food for thought to visitors and staff alike." The exhibition runs until May 24 in the reception area of the offices, which are open between 8.30am and 4.30pm, Monday to Friday

EARLY TAKE-UP OF NATIONAL PARK LOGO OFFER

Businesses in the Yorkshire Dales are being reminded that they can get help boosting their trade.

More than 60 have already applied to use the National Park's famous Swaledale ram's head logo in connection with their marketing material - and some versions of the logo can already be seen on company websites.

Sarah Nicholson, the Yorkshire Dales National Park Authority's Communications Officer, said: "There has been a fantastic response to our offer and it's obvious that a lot of local businesses realise there is tremendous potential for an increase in trade by associating themselves with the National Park.

"Applications we have received so far have come from a range of businesses including accommodation providers, art and craft businesses, agricultural suppliers, festivals, transport operators, outdoor pursuits providers and local food manufacturers.

"The majority are from within the National Park but some have been from outside the boundary, with the applicant having a strong focus on the National Park.

REETH AND DISTRICT GAZETTE LTD

" The new locator logos come in five eye-catching designs and help businesses and event providers identify their activity or product as being in or of the Yorkshire Dales National Park. Applicants just choose which are most appropriate for them.

"I would like to stress that the logos are not a quality mark and they don't represent an endorsement, funding or any other support by the Authority," said Sarah, "but we think they will help to tie businesses to this beautiful National Park and all the fantastic things it has to offer."

There is no charge to use the new locator logos, but applicants must be registered with the Intellectual Property Office as licensees permitted to use the trademark. This normally costs £50, but the fee is being paid by the Authority in the first year of the scheme to encourage take up and it lasts in perpetuity.

THE SWALEDALE FESTIVAL

This well loved Festival returns on Saturday 25th May and runs for two weeks. There are many attractions which cover all musical tastes including such performers as John Williams, guitarist, Charlotte Barbour-Condini, (Finalist BBC Young Musician of the Year) recorder player, Leyland Brass Band and local musicians.. Booking is essential for many events and so you are advised to book early. If you need more information or a Festival brochure phone Margaret Murphy at 01748 880018, or email publicity@swalefest.org

NATIONAL PARK HELPS THE HEROES

Injured members of the Armed Forces are giving some extra help to the Yorkshire Dales National Park Authority's Ranger Service. MGroups of four to six residents at the Phoenix House Recovery Centre in Catterick Garrison have been spending time learning new skills in the stunning landscape of the National Park. Phoenix House is one of four specialist recovery centres that provide a wide range of support for wounded heroes, veterans and their families. Run by Help for Heroes, the Centre forms part of the Defence Recovery Capability and is an important step along the road to recovery for residents and day visitors alike. Providing rounded support in the form of education, training, welfare, sport and adventure, many of the activities on offer focus on helping those injured prepare for Civvy Street. The groups, accompanied by a Help for Heroes leader, have been assisting the Rangers in the Swaledale and Wensleydale areas of the National Park on a number of different projects connected with the Authority's 'usual' area of work - the maintenance of 1,500 miles of public footpaths, bridleways and byways within the National Park boundary. This involves repairing or replacing pieces of 'infrastructure' - the stone or timber stiles, gates, bridges, fingerposts - and maintaining the surface typically found along the network of trails. They have also helped build timber tree guards for a tree planting scheme in parkland at Ellerton Abbey and they have been hanging timber gates, putting up post and rail fencing and trying their hand at dry stone walling on the new sculpture trail at Hawes National Park Centre. In addition, they have been busy working on a dozen red squirrel feeders that will be used as part of the Authority's on-going red squirrel monitoring programme in Upper Wensleydale. And they have built bird and bat boxes, and then put them up in Freeholders Wood, near to Aysgarth Falls. The wood is managed by the National Park Authority and is a great habitat, comprising semi natural ancient hazel coppice woodland. Mo Usman, Centre Manager at Phoenix House, said: "This work provides those recovering from physical and mental injuries, with the chance to get outdoors and contribute to looking after the National Park. Some learn new skills and others are able to use skills gained during their military service. "As well as individuals developing new interests that may help beyond military life, the work they have done with the Rangers also assists their recovery process by being practical as well as therapeutic - importantly it helps them to rebuild their confidence. Matt Neale, the YDNPA's Area Ranger for Upper Wensleydale, said: "It's very satisfying both personally and for the National Park Authority in that we can do our bit to help those who have helped us. "And the feedback we get from them is very positive - they say they enjoy giving something back to the local community and the environment. "The idea first came to fruition through one of our established volunteers who had made a link with Phoenix House - and thanks must also go to the other Rangers based at Hawes who get involved." Further information about the Phoenix House Recovery Centre can be found at www.helpforheroes.org.uk/prc-catterick-garrison.html

Under 12's

Football has again been severely disrupted by the weather and this has not helped our play

We played top of the League Spennithorne in the Cup Quarter Final on 17th March. This was a well balanced game but Spenni were just that bit stronger although Dales played well with a full team. Scott Alderson got an injury and although the Spenni linesman flagged this up, the referee did not see and perhaps the slight distraction enabled Spenni to open the scoring and they got a second before half time. A slightly tough hand ball decision allowed Spenni to score from, we have to admit, a stunning free kick. Scott, now recovered, made an excellent finish from some good football but Spenni found the net twice more before Scott pulled one back with a cracking shot from an acute angle. Scott played a really good game having slightly lost his form and, without exception, the whole squad acquitted themselves well against a good team. Lost 5-2.

I could not be present when we travelled to Catterick Village but Dales did not play at their best and missed 4 clear chances while Village scored in the closing minutes. Lost 1-0.

Next season we want to try and run 3 League teams but urgently need more adult coaching and other help to keep football alive in the 2 Dales. We have a financially strong club with fantastic facilities. Please don't let us lose it.

UPPER DALES FAMILY HISTORY GROUP

The March speaker was June Hall who delivered a fascinating talk on a little known emigration between 1772 and 1775 when around a 1000 settlers from North Yorkshire moved to an area around the Bay of Fundy in what was then Nova Scotia. The region had originally been occupied by the French who had turned salt marshes into fertile farmland. The French were evicted after a battle in 1755 and the land began to revert to marsh. Attempts to resettle the region from America were foiled by the War of Independence so the Governor advertised for help in the English press - specifying that he wanted Yorkshire Methodist farmers! The Governor was attracted by their agricultural expertise and work ethic but from the settlers point of view it was a good time to leave England. Social and technological upheaval and revolutions in industry, transport and agriculture had led to large estates squeezing out small farmers and many landowners took the opportunity to tighten up restrictions on Methodist families.

With conditions in England making it increasingly unlikely they would ever be able to buy their own land, many tenant families chose to risk the hazardous crossing to begin again across the Atlantic. Timing was crucial; they had to leave England late enough for the sea passages to be open but arrive in Canada early enough to buy land, plant a crop and be ready for the following winter. Letters home advised families to bring with them a bag of seed corn to use as a pillow - it would keep the seed dry and keep the rats away from it!

Many of the families still live in the same small area of Canada and can trace their ancestors back to the Yorkshire emigrants, even down to which ship they sailed on. Family correspondence survives along with pieces of furniture which made the voyage with them, traditional crafts such as patchwork and a deep sense of attachment to their roots.

This month's meeting is on Wednesday, May 22, at 2pm in Fremington Sunday School when Jackie Depelle will be speaking on the Moravian settlement at Fulneck. The Upper Dales Group is a branch of the Cleveland Family History Society; entry is free for members and non-members are very welcome at £2 each. For further details see the website at www.upperdalesfhg.org.uk or contact Tracy Little 01748-884759. There will also be a drop-in Family History Computer Club at Hudson House in Reeth from 1pm to 5pm on Saturday, May 4, for anyone interested in getting started with researching family history on the internet or looking for help to get further. No need to book. £3 for the first two hours, then £1 per hour - stay as long as you like.

BOOK SALE FRIDAY 31ST MAY

The Library at Hudson House is having a sale of books that are no longer needed by North Yorkshire libraries. Come and grab a bargain book from 9am to around 3pm (depending on when stocks run out) from the stall on Reeth Green. Contact Maggie Kentsbeer on 884186 or Elizabeth Bedford 886974.

Just a few warnings this month from the Computer Corner:

1) Telephone scammers still seem to be very active and I have had a few people contact me over the last month to say they have been conned (or nearly conned). If you get an unsolicited call about a computer problem it is more than likely a scam - especially if they say the work on behalf of (or even are) Microsoft. Treat them like any other potential thief and whatever you do don't allow them to remotely access your computer.

2) Microsoft issued a patch in April which has caused some people problems. The patch ID number is 2823324 and the symptom of a problem is "You receive an Event ID 55 or a 0xc000021a Stop error in Windows 7 after you install security update 2823324". The problem only seems to affect Windows 7 and Windows Server 2008 - you can check for the event by clicking start, type "Event Viewer" (without the quotes) and then press enter - it will be under the section Windows Logs > System. Microsoft have issued instruction on how to resolve the problem here: <http://support.microsoft.com/kb/2839011>

3) "Registry Cleaners", "System optimisers" and 'Speed up your PC' type tools are everywhere on the internet. It doesn't seem to matter which page you go to on the internet you get bombarded with adverts and download links to download these tools. At best all of these tools are smoke and mirrors, at worst they are simply cons to get money from you. There are a lot of tools that are very useful but there is a big problem - to be useful you need to be VERY knowledgeable about the inner workings of your computer and Windows - almost none of them work well as one click fixes - even though many advertise themselves as such. The fact is that all of these 'tools' clean up what they consider to be rubbish but there is no way they can genuinely identify rubbish with 100% accuracy. Even a clean, fresh install of Windows straight from the factory will have 'errors' according to these tools. Used without a great deal of caution they can cause huge problems and even stop computers working altogether. The 'tweaking' the tools do is almost always unnecessary so if in doubt don't download them at all. If you want a quick clean up tool the only one I recommend is CCleaner (which can be downloaded for free from www.ccleaner.com - note there are paid for versions just make sure you choose the version you want). CCleaner is an excellent, and safe, way to clear rubbish (esp. internet related rubbish) from your system - even so I would avoid the built in registry cleaner section unless you really know what you are doing. That's it this month - any questions or comments, or ideas for new column topics please get in touch via my website www.dalescomputerservices.com

NEW LEASE OF LIFE FOR HISTORIC BUILDING

A piece of railway history in the Yorkshire Dales National Park has been restored to its former glory. The Station Master's House at Ribblehead was in dire need of some TLC when it was bought by the Settle and Carlisle Railway Trust. The Yorkshire Dales National Park Authority (YDNPA) granted planning consent for the facelift and, after months of hard work, it is due to be officially opened for the day on April 24. Roger Bingham, the YDNPA's Member Champion for Conservation of Cultural Heritage, said: "It is marvellous that it has been so sensitively restored. "Bringing the building back to life also has a valuable financial spin-off because it will be used for holiday occupation and will bring in much needed revenue for the local economy." "By its very name, the house illustrates social attitudes of 150 years ago as even an employee of the railway was regarded as a 'master' by lesser employees and no-one would have envisaged there being a

'station mistress'. The building itself illustrates both domestic and transport history. "Architecturally it illustrates that non-vernacular forms were accepted even for relatively humble dwellings, although the house itself with its earth privy, cold tap, large clear pane windows, high ceilings and separate bedrooms for parents, girls and boys would be way above the living conditions of the labouring class." Trustee Graham Dalton said: "The stationmaster's house was last owned by a school for outdoor pursuits and it was in a poor condition when we bought it. "Since then we have carried out a major refurbishment to return it to its original state - complete with the cream and maroon livery of the Midland Railway Company. "It was important that the renovation supported the heritage aspects of the railway line and we think that has been achieved very successfully." The Trust owns the buildings at Ribblehead, Horton and Kirkby Stephen stations on the line and maintains and develops them.

NEWS FROM REETH AND GUNNERSIDE SCHOOLS

The Spring term was of course dominated by snow and ice - as was the rest of life between January and March I suppose! Amazingly we were able to keep both schools open most of the time and Reeth School open every day. What a tribute to dedicated and caring staff who made really tricky journeys to enable us to provide education for your children. The decision to open or not is a difficult one as it has to be made in a short period of time around seven in the morning, in order to get the information to parents, transport providers and staff in time for journeys; but is based on the best estimate of the state of the roads one and a half hours later and on the reliability of the weather forecast for the rest of the day. Given all these challenges, we had a really successful term with, as always, much going on. One important highlight was the success we achieved at the Wensleydale Tournament of Song. Children from 5 yrs to 11 yrs took part in a wide range of speech and music classes including reciting humorous poetry, singing traditional and contemporary songs, composing and reading their own poetry and reading from the Bible. There were many winners and much to be learned from the detailed feedback of the adjudicators. I had a phone call on the day after our older choir, from Yr 5 and 6, performed 'Song of Swaledale'. This lady had been visiting the tournament to support her grandchild from the Bedale area but felt she just had to phone to tell me that she and the whole audience were overwhelmed by the emotion the choir put into the song and the obvious significance of the song to the children. Well done to that choir and to all the children who took part. We are very proud of you all. The Summer term is as always a busy one with the whole school taking the theme of 'Our Changing World' as their topic this year. This will be interpreted in very different ways in each class but will be a common theme running through all our work. Finally I do hope you are able to join us at Reeth School on Friday May 3rd in the afternoon from 1.30pm to 3pm for tea, coffee and delicious cake as the children perform for you and we hold a fund raiser for Breast Cancer Research. Come (and bring your friends) in support of this most worthy of causes. Linda and staff

REETH AFC

Mid-March saw Reeth at home for the second fixture against bottom of the league Hawes/Gayle on a very wet pitch. Scoring opened three minutes from kick off when Stevie Bainbridge's shot was saved by the Hawes keeper only to ricochet off a defender for an own goal. Twenty minutes later and two goals from Bainbridge gave Reeth a 3 - 0 lead. A cross from Shaun Charlton and a clean strike from Joe Woodall on the half hour and Reeth went into the half time break with a four goal lead. With the pitch surface deteriorating through the middle a passing game became increasingly difficult. Ten minutes after the restart and Stevie Bainbridge completed his hat trick, this was followed by a header from John Williams off a Woodall cross and with ten minutes to go Shaun Charlton added to the tally for a 7-0 win. Mention must go to Sean Lord donning a Reeth shirt for his first senior team match and acquitting himself well. Also to the Hawes goalie and young defender in particular who both played a good game. Man of the Match John Williams. With the weather again interrupting play the next league match away was against current league leaders Colburn. Following on from the cup victory against them a 4-0 loss was a disappointing result although probably a true reflection on the game with Reeth playing far from their best, and Colburn making the most of their chances. Man of the match Danny Plumb. The first match of April looked to be a repeat of the previous week with Reeth four goals down to Richmond Mavericks with ten minutes left on the clock. A superb 25 yard shot from Shaun Charlton and an edge of the box shot from John Williams brought the score back to a more respectable 4-2 loss. Man of the match Craig Swainston. The neutral ground at Earls Orchard was the venue for the semi-final match of the Dales Cup against Unicorn FC. The first half saw Unicorn with the greater amount of possession; however it was Reeth who went into the half time break leading 1-0 from a back pass to the keeper and a poor clearance that landed neatly for Stevie Bainbridge to score. Reeth took to the field in the second half and dominated early play but could not add to their goal tally. A corner and a free kick later and Unicorn took the lead. Reeth pushed forward looking to score but a break on the right from Unicorn resulted in a third goal. Final score 3-1 loss. With the league season extended due to the bad weather Reeth are now playing Wednesday night matches, the first home one against Richmond Academy. For anyone on the side lines this was a great game to watch with both sides playing entertaining football. At the final whistle Academy winning on one kick of the ball; a well taken powerful free kick into the top of the goal. What is harder to take a loss where you play badly and deserve nothing or a loss where you play well and get nothing? we would suspect the second as was the case in this game. Credit to the Reeth lads for a well-played game. Man of the Match Joe Woodall Back to Saturday football and Reeth played the return match against Carperby at Carperby. Tom Wallis opened the scoring for Reeth with a strike from outside the box thundering into the top left hand corner.

This was followed on 40 minutes when Karl Longden took the ball down the right and finished well in the left hand corner of the net, leaving the score 2-0 at half time. Reeth's third goal came early in the second half when a mistake by a Carperby defender saw Stevie Bainbridge take the ball and hit it home. 70 minutes and Reeth were down to ten men when Tom Wallis was dismissed from the field of play following an alleged two footed tackle the ref couldn't fail with the vociferous Carperby support jumping four feet in the air. With a Carperby player running twenty yards and grabbing Tom by the throat his yellow card seemed a tad unfair. With three minutes on the clock Bainbridge sealed the victory for Reeth, with a cross ball from Longden lobbed over keeper. Final score 4-0. Man of the Match Tom Wallis. Supporters are always welcome at home and away games, or if you want to follow Reeth's results, statistics or view future fixtures visit the Wensleydale Creamery League web page.
